Once upon a time, there was a little girl named Lily who loved to play in the forest. She would spend hours exploring the trees, building fairy houses, and making friends with the animals.

One day, Lily was playing in the forest when she came across a group of animals having a meeting. The animals were all very excited, and Lily was curious to know what was going on.

"What are you all talking about?" she asked.

"We're planning a party!" said the squirrel.

"A party?" asked Lily. "What kind of party?"

"A birthday party for the forest king!" said the rabbit.

"The forest king?" asked Lily. "I didn't know the forest had a king."

"Oh, yes," said the owl. "He's a very wise and kind king. He rules over all the animals in the forest, and he makes sure that everyone is happy and safe."

Lily was very excited to hear about the party. She loved animals, and she couldn't wait to meet the forest king.

"Can I come to the party?" she asked.

"Of course!" said the animals. "Everyone is invited."

Lily helped the animals plan the party. They gathered food and decorations, and they made a big cake. On the day of the party, Lily arrived at the clearing where the party was being held. The clearing was decorated with flowers and streamers, and there was a big table full of food.

Lily looked around and saw all the animals from the forest. There were squirrels, rabbits, owls, foxes, and even a bear! Lily was so happy to see so many animals in one place.

Suddenly, the animals all went quiet. Lily looked up and saw a majestic stag walking into the clearing. The stag had a large rack of antlers, and his fur was a rich brown color. Lily knew that this must be the forest king.

The forest king smiled at Lily and said, "Welcome to the party, little girl. I'm glad you could join us."

Lily smiled back and said, "Thank you, forest king. I'm so happy to be here."

Lily spent the rest of the party playing with the animals and eating cake. She had so much fun, and she didn't want the party to end.

When it was time for Lily to go home, the forest king said, "Thank you for coming to my party, little girl. I hope you had a wonderful time."

"I did," said Lily. "Thank you for inviting me."

Lily waved goodbye to the forest king and the animals, and then she walked home. She couldn't wait to tell her parents all about the wonderful party she had attended.

The end.
