Spanning over 500 kilometers, the West Coast Trail is a legendary pilgrimage for hikers worldwide. Traverse rugged shorelines, navigate towering headlands, and lose yourself in the rhythms of the wild. The equally stunning Juan de Fuca Marine Trail unveils a different enchantment, with its gentle coves, secluded beaches, and abundant marine life.

Unveiling the Trail's Gems

- Cape Scott Provincial Park

Step into a land of secluded beaches, towering cliffs, and ancient forests. Cape Scott Trail is a remote wilderness adventure that will captivate your senses.

- Kinsol Trestle

Marvel at the architectural wonder of Kinsol Trestle, a historic railway bridge that spans across a breathtaking canyon. Enjoy scenic views and indulge in a refreshing dip at the nearby falls.

- Nitinat Lake

Immerse yourself in the serenity of Nitinat Lake, nestled amidst towering mountains and tranquil waters. Paddle a canoe, fish for salmon, or simply relax and soak up the tranquility.

In the Company of Nature's Wonders

As you traverse the trails, prepare to encounter a kaleidoscope of wildlife. Black bears roam the forests, while sea otters frolic in the coastal waters. Keep your eyes peeled for whales, porpoises, and a myriad of bird species that call this ecosystem home.
