My Kids Play Hockey is the ultimate guide to raising young hockey players. This comprehensive book covers everything from choosing the right equipment to dealing with injuries, and it's packed with tips and advice from experts in the field.

What's Inside My Kids Play Hockey?

My Kids Play Hockey is divided into three parts:

1. Getting Started

2. The Basics of Hockey

3. Advanced Techniques

The first part of the book covers the basics of hockey, including how to choose the right equipment, how to skate, and how to shoot. The second part of the book goes into more detail about the game of hockey, including the different positions, the rules of the game, and how to develop your skills.

The third part of the book covers advanced techniques, such as how to play defense, how to score goals, and how to improve your overall game. My Kids Play Hockey also includes a number of helpful appendices, such as a glossary of hockey terms, a list of resources for hockey parents, and a sample training schedule.

Who is My Kids Play Hockey For?

My Kids Play Hockey is for any parent who wants to help their child succeed in hockey. Whether you're a new hockey parent or you've been around the rink for years, this book has something for you.

My Kids Play Hockey is also a great resource for coaches and other hockey professionals. The book's expert advice can help you to develop your players and create a successful hockey program.
