Paris To The Moon

An Enchanted Journey Through Literary Paris

by Adam Gopnik

Paris has long been a magnet for writers, artists, and intellectuals from around the world. In his enchanting new book, Paris to the Moon, Adam Gopnik takes readers on a literary journey through the City of Light, exploring the lives and works of some of the greatest writers who have ever lived there.

From Ernest Hemingway to Gertrude Stein, from F. Scott Fitzgerald to James Baldwin, Gopnik paints a vivid portrait of the bohemian culture that has made Paris a mecca for artists and intellectuals for centuries. He visits the cafés where writers like Hemingway and Fitzgerald once held court, and the apartments where Stein and Baldwin wrote some of their most famous works. He explores the literary landmarks of the city, from the Sorbonne to the Left Bank, and traces the footsteps of the writers who have made Paris their home.
