In a quiet suburban town, a seemingly idyllic family is shattered by a tragic event. The patriarch, a respected doctor, is found dead in his home, an apparent suicide. But as Detective Sarah Keller investigates, she uncovers a web of secrets, lies, and hidden motives that point to a far more sinister truth.

As Sarah digs deeper, she finds herself drawn into a dangerous game of cat and mouse with a cunning killer who is always one step ahead. The closer she gets to the truth, the more her own life is put at risk.

With its intricate plot, unforgettable characters, and heart-pounding suspense, this is a psychological crime thriller that will keep you on the edge of your seat from the very first page.
