Venus was born in 1980 and Serena was born in 1981. They grew up in Compton, California, and began playing tennis at a young age. Their father, Richard Williams, was a self-taught tennis coach who believed that his daughters could become the best in the world.

Venus and Serena quickly rose through the ranks of junior tennis. Venus won the Wimbledon junior title in 1998 and Serena won it in 1999. They both turned professional in 1999 and quickly began to make a name for themselves on the WTA Tour.

Venus won her first Grand Slam singles title at the US Open in 2000.

Serena won her first Grand Slam singles title at the French Open in 2002.

They have since won a combined 30 Grand Slam singles titles, including 7 Wimbledon titles, 7 Australian Open titles, 6 US Open titles, and 5 French Open titles.

In addition to their Grand Slam success, Venus and Serena have also won 14 Grand Slam doubles titles. They are the only two players to have won all four Grand Slam doubles titles in the same year (2002 and 2009). They have also won 4 Olympic gold medals, including 3 in doubles (2000, 2008, and 2012) and 1 in singles (2012).

Venus and Serena Williams are two of the most successful and decorated athletes in history. Their story is one of perseverance, hard work, and determination. They are an inspiration to young people all over the world.
